

Defiance To Lewis At Mines

Threat of Strikes By Million CIO Steelworkers And 115,000 UAW Men

By the Associated Press

Non-union coal diggers, many carrying rifles and shotguns, returned to pits in western Pennsylvania today in defiance of John L. Lewis' striking United Mine Workers.

Reinforced state troopers patrolled the four county Clearfield area in a move to block violence. Armed guards paced near entrances to 35 mines while others patrolled nearby areas. At least 17 pickets were arrested for violating a ban against mass picketing.

Mine operators estimated about 1,100 non-union workers had returned to the pits after a week of idleness.

At Buffalo, N. Y., wives and children of striking CIO United Auto Workers picketed the Ball Aircraft Corp. plant and turned back several carloads of non-strikers.

Police counted 61 women and 18 children, one in a baby carriage, parading before the main gate. Some of the picketing women used placards to beat on the hoods and tops of automobiles attempting to enter the plant.

About 1,700 union workers have been on strike, since June 13 demanding a 10-cent hourly pay increase and pensions.

Further Bargain Sessions
Meanwhile, negotiators in two of the nation's biggest labor disputes—steel and auto—planned further bargaining sessions today as strike deadlines involving more than a million workers neared.

Strikes threatened this week by 1,000,000 CIO United steelworkers and by 115,000 CIO United Auto Workers at the Ford Motor Co. There was no indication that the negotiators were heading toward agreement on the disputed issues.

Adding further gloom to the labor picture was the continued work stoppage of 480,000 coal miners and no signs of an early return to work. The United Mine Workers union is scheduled to meet tomorrow with southern coal operators, apparently on the question of back royalty payments. State policemen patrolled the western Pennsylvania highways to prevent an outbreak of violence in non-union coal fields.

Another major labor dispute which threatens a strike involves maritime workers. Contracts covering AFL longshoremen at Atlantic and Gulf coast docks and with AFL's masters, mates and pilots, covering east coast ship officers expire midnight Friday. Federal conciliators expressed fear of a walkout.

The steel strike deadline also is midnight Friday. In talks at New York yesterday on the issues of pensions and insurance, Bethlehem Steel corporation proposed it pay four cents an hour for an insurance program and that employees pay three cents. No offer was made on pensions.

A union spokesman said: "If the company does not retreat from this attitude a strike is inevitable."

The CIO-Steelworkers president, Philip Murray, wants pension and an insurance program for the workers with the entire cost to be financed by the industry. The union's top negotiators met with representatives of U. S. Steel corporation in Pittsburgh.

In Detroit, Ford and CIO-UAW representatives planned to resume sessions at 1 p. m. (EST). The union has said if no settlement is reached by 12:01 a. m. Thursday it will set a strike date for Ford's 115,000 production workers.

• Thought for Today

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.—Psalms 1:3.

Margaret Truman And Sponsor

Margaret Truman, daughter of the president, discusses details of her forthcoming performance as guest soloist on a radio program with Charles H. Wagner, president of the American Oil company, sponsor of the program. They met in New York. She is scheduled to make her first professional appearance at Carnegie Hall in New York on December 20, during her tour of 27 cities in October. Her Carnegie Hall appearance will be her only one in New York and her only radio broadcast in 1949.

Endeavor to Make Coming Drive Easier

Time Saving to Solicitors is Aim Of Ones in Charge

In an effort to make drives for contributions for various worthwhile organizations easier on all concerned and to save the time of both of the solicitors and those solicited, seven agencies have been grouped together by the Chamber of Commerce for one drive, the Community Chest Drive.

While this drive takes considerable time and planning by civic minded citizens who are willing to work to obtain the necessary money to run the organizations, it is far less work than trying to make the drives separately. It is also a great advantage to those who are solicited to be able to give the full amount for all agencies at one time instead of being constantly contacted for one organization or another.

Opens October 10
This year the Community Chest committee started its organization with a meeting on August 16, at which time each participating agency set-up its budget. Last year the last meeting of the committee was in late December when the money had been collected and divided among the agencies according to their budget.

Funds are always distributed to the participating agencies the first of the year. The actual drive for the Community Chest starts this year on October 10, and the quicker the quota is reached the sooner the men and women, who are leaving their work to help in the drive, may go back to their own work. They would appreciate the co-operation of all citizens in being ready with contributions when they call.

Suggests 'Face To Face' Talk

LONDON, Sept. 27—(AP)—A labor member of parliament urged today a face-to-face atom bomb conference of President Truman, Prime Minister Stalin and Prime Minister Attlee.

The suggestion came in the House of Commons after Attlee rejected Winston Churchill's demand for more information about the disclosure of an atomic explosion in Russia.

Attlee said it would not be in the public interest at present to go beyond the Sept. 23 joint statement of the United States, Canada and Britain, which had said merely that an "atomic explosion" had occurred in the Soviet Union. Scientists interpreted this to mean Russia surely has an atomic weapon.

Sharp Quake at Anchorage, Alaska

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Sept. 27—(AP)—A sharp earthquake rocked this area for about a half minute today at 7:31 a. m. (PCT).

Chief U. S. Weather Bureau Forecaster Roy Fox said that it was "most severe in the five years I have been here," he said the bureau has no way of measuring the severity of the quake.

The quake was generally felt in Portage and down the peninsula to Seward.

There were no damage reports in the Anchorage area immediately available.

The only damage reports were from Seward. Where dishes were reported broken.

Program on Arms Aid is Approved

Committee of Senate-House For $1,314,010,000 Bill

By Don Whitehead

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—Swift agreement in a senate-house committee on a $1,314,010,000 overseas arms program sped along today one U. S. answer to Russia's a-bomb claims.

The news of an atomic blast in Russia served to speed agreement among the lawmakers that friendly nations must be strengthened against the threat of Communism.

A senate-house conference late yesterday sidetracked a house economy move and agreed, in three hours, on the higher cost program voted earlier by the senate. The discarded house figure was $869,415,000, or $444,595,000 less than the agreed-upon senate figure.

The conferees worked on final points today (1 p. m. CST) this will clear the way for final congressional action, first by the house and the senate.

Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the senate foreign relations committee told reporters the Russian atomic reports "have given the arms program new strength."

Republican Senators Bridges of New Hampshire, Knowland of California agreed.

Usually, conferees appointed to settle senate-house differences reach agreement by an in-between compromise. In this case the house members dropped any pretense for the lower figure. And as the authorization bill now stands it contains:

$1,000,000,000 for the North Atlantic pact nations;
$211,370,000 for Greece and Turkey;

$27,840,000 for Iran, Korea and the Philippines;
$75,000,000 which may be spent by the president—as he sees fit—in the China area;

Permission to ship $450,000,000 of surplus arms.

Briefly, the program would authorize the bulk of arms aid for western Europe and make $125,000,000 available immediately to get the aid program underway. This money would come from the reconstruction finance corporation.

The remainder of the cash and contact authority would be provided by appropriation. The aid for western Europe is divided, $50,000,000 in cash and $500,000,000 in authority to enter contracts. Only $100,000,00 in cash could be spent immediately. The remainder would become available only after President Truman approves defense recommendations made by the Atlantic Pact military committee.

The senate insisted on putting this string on the spending to tie the program more closely to the operations of the North Atlantic security council and the defense committee.

The house members gave ground, too, in accepting aid for the China area. The house had voted nothing for China.

C. of C. Board Meets Friday

A meeting of the Chamber of Commerce board will be held at noon Friday in the Palm Room of the Bothwell hotel.

Members of the board will be guests of R. M. Overstreet, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

President May Pass Up World Series

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—President Truman probably will pass up the World Series this year. But he will attend the Army-Navy annual football classic at Philadelphia November 26.

Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters today "it looks unlikely" that the president will get to any game of the baseball series.

"Too much is going on," Ross said.

But he said it is definite that Mr. Truman will attend the inter-service football game in Philadelphia as he did last year.

Meeting Here On Wildlife

Films on Hunting And Fishing be Shown Wednesday

Wildlife problems of Pettis county will be aired at an open meeting in the court house Wednesday night, according to Carl Wollet, president of the Pettis County Conservation club. Hunting and fishing movies presented by Otis Thorborne, field service agent of the State Conservation Commission, will round out the program. The meeting will start at 7:30 o'clock.

One of the films will deal with the training and field work of bird dogs, it was announced. Another will show sport fishing in the Ozarks. The movies will be in color and sound.

Principal speaker will be Charles Callison of Booneville, executive secretary of the Conservation Federation of Missouri. Callison will discuss the aims and program of the federation, a statewide association of conservation clubs with chapters in more than 60 counties of Missouri.

Plan Reviving Club

Wollet said plans are underway to revive the Pettis County club which has been inactive for several years, and to expend its membership. "Farmers are especially invited to attend," Wollet said, "not only because many farmers are sportsmen, but because the farmer as manager of the land, is the key man in any wildlife program."

Callison was author of a feature article on Missouri's hunting and fishing opportunities which appeared in the magazine on outdoor subjects for national magazines.

Park Naturalist Attend

Paul Shepard, Jr., a former national park naturalist and now field secretary of the federation, also will attend the meeting, as will William A. Struesse, wildlife conservation agent for this district.

Wollet pointed out that the federation, represented by Callison and Shepard, has no connection with the State Conservation Commission. The Commission is the state agency which makes the fish and game regulations, issues hunting and fishing licenses, employs the conservation agents or "game wardens," and operates state fish hatcheries, game refuges and other phases of the state conservation program.

The federation, as a private citizen's organization, serves to speak for the public in matters affecting conservation. One of the statewide aims of the federation is defeat of certain proposed flood-control dams which would destroy some of Missouri's unique, clear-water Ozark streams, and inundate such great scenic attractions as Big Spring, Round Spring and Alley Spring.

Woman Pilot Up 26,400 Feet

READING, Pa., Sept. 27—(AP)—Just a day after she claimed a new altitude record for light planes, Mrs. Mildred Zimmerman, 27-year-old Reading housewife, soared to an unofficial new mark of 26,400 feet.

Instruments in the plane she used yesterday were flown to Washington for official confirmation of her record claim by the national aeronautics association.

Sunday Mrs. Zimmerman took her PA-11 to a height of 26,200 feet.

The present record-holder is Betty Skelton, of Tampa, Fla., who reached a height of 21,900 feet a year ago.

Food Prices May Decline

Tariff Cuts to Be Announced in About Two Weeks

By Sam Dawson

NEW YORK, Sept. 27—(AP)—Food prices are getting a shove just now from three sides which may push them a little lower this fall.

1. President Truman signed the extension of the reciprocal trade program Monday, opening the door at least for a lowering of tariff bars on some foods.

2. The heavy seasonal movement of livestock to market is sending meat prices down, especially pork, while the substantial surpluses of grain the United States, even though government price supported, act as a constant threat and depressant.

3. Cheapening of many currencies may lower prices, either directly or through world competition, in countries that produce important quantities of rice, wheat, cocoa, coffee, butter, pepper, spices and fresh fruits.

The drop in the prices of these foods at source will act, in effect, as a lowering of the American tariffs on them, where there is such a tariff—as in the case of Denmark's butter.

Some food products on which there is no domestic competition—such as pepper, cocoa or coffee—could come in much cheaper if their home countries devalue the currency and pass on the saving. This is unlikely to happen without the spur of competition.

Other foods, produced both here and in devalued countries—such as rice and fresh fruits—might be forced down in price here if foreign producers depress the world market.

The direct tariff cuts, under the reciprocal trade pacts, will be announced in about two weeks. Just what foodstuffs are included is not revealed.

Sentences of Death To Three Women

RASTATT, Germany, Sept. 27—(AP)—Three young German women were sentenced to death today for war crimes they committed in the Nazis Ravensbrueck concentration camp for women.

The Germans, Maria Minges, Ingeborg and Ruth Schumann, were convicted by a French war crimes court here. They were former Nazi SS (Elite Guard) overseers at Ravensbrueck.

Immunization Clinic to be Held For School Children

A countywide clinic to immunize school children against diphtheria, tetanus and smallpox will be held at the Pettis county court house on Thursday and Friday of this week. All children in the county from age five through high school age are eligible to attend the clinic provided they have the signed consent of their parent or guardian for receiving the immunization.

The Pettis county court house has made this clinic possible by furnishing space for holding it and agreeing to meet the necessary expenses for supplies. Also cooperating with the schools to carry on the clinic have been the Pettis County Medical Society which approved the plans and is furnishing the doctors; the R. N. Club which will furnish the nurses and has provided speakers for P. T. A. groups; the State Division of Health through Mrs. Esther Johnston, R. N., district health nurse; the city and county Parent-Teacher Councils; the Council of Home Extension Clubs and Farm Bureau and the Pettis County Health Council.

Schools have been scheduled for attendance at definite times of the day and are asked to observe this schedule as closely as possible to avoid congestion at the clinic. Receptionists will be stationed on the first floor of the court house to greet arriving groups and give information.

Children are to go first to the Assembly Room on the first floor of the court house. Here they will have an opportunity to watch movies while awaiting their call to the clinic. As additional groups are needed, messengers will summon them from the assembly room to the second floor.

Cards be Checked
Registrars stationed in the lobby on the second floor will check the consent cards of children who are carrying them, and return the cards to children who have already filed them with the county superintendent's office. After the cards have been checked, children will go to the county court room to leave wraps and wait to be called into the clinic.

As they enter the clinic room, their arms will be prepared by volunteer workers. Children are asked to wear short sleeves or very loose sleeves which can be pushed high up on their arms. The clinic itself will be held in the office formerly occupied by the county public health nurse on the second floor of the court house.

The following volunteer workers will assist the doctors and nurses who are conducting the clinic: Mrs. Harry Mines Mrs. G. W. Duell, Mrs. Lester Smith, Mrs. Ray Dirck, Mrs. Fred Anton, Mrs. Frank Lewis, Mrs. R. L. Schultz, Mrs. L. W. Duly, Mrs. Lawrence Dailey, Mrs. Henry Menefee, Mrs. R. W. Rapp, Mrs. J. W. Starke, Mrs. Henry Newland, Mrs. Oliver Thomas, Mrs. A. F. Scott, Mrs. Richard Sklar, Mrs. Ivan Caraway, Mrs. E. E. Gregory, Mrs. Margaret Labahn, Mrs. John Loague, and Mrs. M. E. Green.

President in An Address to Women

Declares They Are Eager For Good Things of Life

By Ernest B. Vaccaro

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—President Truman declared today that those who denounce his "fair deal" program as "alien or dangerous" are "just about 160 years behind the times."

The chief executive sought new women recruits for the Democratic party with a campaign-like promise to press forward with housing, educational aid, expanded social security and labor objectives of the 1948 platform.

He asked the women of the country to "look beneath the labels to see the facts" and not to be "misled by political slogans."

He said women's interest in government "goes far beyond job holding or partisanship."

He spoke via radio from the White House on "Democratic Women's Day" on a broadcast with Mrs. India Edwards, director of the women's division of the Democratic national committee.

Also on the program were Mrs. Elsie West, Lothian, Md., Mrs. Albert C. Hulihan of Slippery Rock, Pa., and Mrs. George London of Raleigh, N. C., introduced as typical American women representing farm, labor and business respectively.

Want Peace, Prosperity

"Women want peace, so that our children will not have to go to war. Women want prosperity, so that our families can enjoy the good things of life. Women want progress, so that our children can have more than we have had, and in turn can give more to their children."

"The Democratic party is working steadily toward these goals."

The president said the Democratic party offered the women a program of "practical measures."

"It is not a blueprint imposed from on high by a little group of theorists," he said. "Neither is it a set of platitudes concocted by a group of corporation lawyers in a smoke-filled room. Our program is an expression of the desires of the people."

Talk on Farm Training

F. W. Smithpeter Is Speaker to Optimist Club

Sedalia Optimists at their noon meeting at Bothwell hotel were entertained by a short music program, which was followed by a talk given by F. W. Smithpeter.

Prof. O. A. Rahm, accompanied by Lillian Fox, played two violin numbers which were thoroughly enjoyed by the members. Following announcements, a talk was given by F. W. Smithpeter who is in charge of Institutional Farm Training for the Veteran in this area. Mr. Smithpeter explained the program and pointed out that now a veteran who is also a farmer, can get his vocational training while on the farm as well as in the school. The program has a definite program and plan and is under the supervision of the University of Missouri. The study plan covers 25 projects in all.

Preserving Soil
One of the projects that in being covered extensively is the preserving of the soil from further erosion. The thoughtless waste that took place in the pioneering of the United States has brought us face to face with the problem of preserving and rebuilding the soil and producing more acreage for crops, or face the facts that we may not be able to feed the nation in a few years time.

The greatest destruction of soil comes from "water, ice and wind." In Missouri the greatest destruction comes from water. Three fourths of the land of the State of Missouri has suffered from slight to extensive erosion.

Following the address by Mr. Smithpeter, it was announced that a night meeting would be held on the second Tuesday in October, and that a District Meeting will be held in Topeka on next Thursday.

Robbery at Portales Police Station

PORTALES, N. M., Sept. 27—(AP)—The Portales police department was robbed last night. Someone took Police Judge F. T. Burke's lock box and another box containing $425 in fines. The four-man force is diligently investigating.

Union Reply To Company is Being Drafted

Volunteers Would Operate a Line In Oklahoma

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27—(AP)—Union officers today were drafting a reply to a company charge that they were trying to "expand the practice of featherbedding" against the strike-bound Missouri Pacific railroad.

Featherbedding is a word used to describe creation of unnecessary work.

R. E. Davidson, spokesman for the four striking brotherhoods, would not comment directly on the charge. But he said statements that "featherbedding" claims by the unions would cost MoPac an initial outlay of $12,000,000 were "greatly exaggerated."

The statements were made yesterday by Guy A. Thompson, the railroad's trustee.

No Meeting Today
Chiefs of the striking brotherhoods had estimated that settlement of 282 back pay claims would cost the line about $3,000,000.

Davidson said no meeting was scheduled today with Thompson. Nor did he know when another conference would be sought.

He said letters continued to pour in from strikers "reassuring us they are with us."

"All say they want an honorable settlement," Davidson added. The prolonged strike began Sept. 9.

Would Operate Trains

NOWATA, Okla., Sept. 27—(AP)—Civic leaders here today volunteered to man strike bound equipment of the Missouri Pacific railroad in an effort to ward off a growing economic pinch.

Charles A. Whitford told the company he had recruited a number of volunteers to provide service between transfer points at Coffeyville, Kas., and Claremore, Okla.

Whitford said several persons had agreed to help run the trains. He has received no word from the company yet.

The Missouri Pacific services Nowata and this northeastern section of Oklahoma.

Whitford said that the strike had caused noticeable effects on commerce here. Cattle shipments are being held up, or trucked to market. This is the big marketing season for cattle here.

Forest Fire Rages Out of Control

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., Sept. 27—(AP)—A 2,500-acre forest fire, seen by lookouts 115 miles away, raged out of control early today in the mountains above here.

Strong night winds whipped up the blaze, shooting great clouds of smoke skyward. Veteran firefighters termed it "One of the worst smoke fires we've ever seen."

Some 450 men, 12 pumpers and eight bulldozers are employed in fighting the fire. Seven firefighters were injured during the night, none seriously.

The U. S. Forest Service reported that lookouts as far north as Bakerfield, 115 miles away, saw the lit-up skies.

Although the fire raged near the mountain community of Wrightwood, no homes were immediately threatened.

The fire was started last Wednesday by lightning and had been burning slowly since. Fanned by winds, it spread out of control yesterday.

Recover Eleven Bodies

Big Bomber of Airforce in Crash Monday Night In Oklahoma

TALIHINA, Okla., Sept. 27—(AP)—A B29 Air Force bomber crashed and burst into flames near this southeastern Oklahoma town early last night, possibly snuffing out the lives of 13 crew members.

Eleven bodies have been recovered from the wreckage. Lieut. Arch Hamilton of the state highway patrol said he believed all 13 had died in the crash.

The bodies were to be flown to the Fort Worth Air Force base while the search continued for the other two.

Tinker Air Force base officers in Oklahoma City said the plane was on a non-stop navigational training flight from Smoky Hill base, Salina, Kas.

Airforce authorities did not disclose names of the 13 men who boarded the plane on its takeoff.

City Marshal Jack Bishop said he counted 10 bodies near the molten mass shortly after midnight, five hours after the four-engine craft plunged earthward.

Flames made it impossible for rescue volunteers to get within 100 yards of the plane after gasoline spread over the area. Intense heat after the fire died out also delayed a close view of the wreckage.

Wreckage In Woods

Some observers said they thought they heard the plane explode in midair. They said the wreckage was heaped compactly into a wooded patch on a small hill.

Talihina is in the Ozark National Forest area but the crash scene was in prairie country inhabited by ranch families. It is

Vegetables for Winter Are Saved by Simple Storage

Easy Methods of Storing Vegetables.

Vegetables which remain in good condition in the home vegetable garden after frosts begin may easily be stored safely for winter use. Kale, Brussels sprouts, parsnips and salsify will stand freezing, and are usually left in the garden and harvested as needed, until just before the ground freezes deeply.

If parsnips and salsify are dug at this stage, washed and enough for one meal packed in a paper bag, the bags can be stored outdoors in any convenient place where they will remain dry and safe from animals. They can be taken into the kitchen and thawed out for use as needed.

Tomatoes should be harvested after the first hard frost. Many can be ripened if laid on a shelf in a warm basement; some prefer to hang them up, still attached to the vine. Carrots, beets, turnips, rutabagas, potatoes, apples and cabbages can be stored in an unheated garage or shed for several weeks, until the outside temperatures have fallen to several degrees below freezing. If the carrots, beets and turnips are placed in boxes packed in soil, which is kept moist, in the protection of the garage or shed they will keep well except in extremely low temperatures. Sand is not good for this packing, as it does not retain moisture well. Potatoes should not be packed in this way.

Pumpkins, squash and sweet potatoes should be stored in a temperature between 55 and 65 degrees, which is often found in a heated basement. The crops requiring lower temperatures may be kept in heated basements for some time if they are packed in boxes with wet sand about them.

Where the quantity to be stored does not warrant an expensive outdoor root cellar, various adaptations of the idea may be used, as shown in the illustration.

Vegetables stored should be in good condition, not too old or too immature; and tender vegetables which have been exposed to frost should never be stored. Avoid vegetables with bruises or skin punctures as decay will start from these, and never store vegetables which are wet. Even the hardest vegetables should not be stored if they have been frozen.

Do not close outdoor root cellars tightly until the temperature inside has dropped close to freezing, and do not cover vegetables in earth pits until the soil has cooled off thoroughly.

ANYTHING GOES FOR A DOWN PAYMENT—Employees of Barney Teal, right, above, Detroit auto dealer, unload a customer's "down payment" on a used car. In this case, the down payment was a used radio. Teal's ingenious swappers will accept any item of value—from a fur coat to a piece of real estate—as part payment on their autos. Business has doubled since they developed the "anything goes" idea.

Blackmer In Guilty Plea To Tax Invasion

Dismissal Of Perjury Indictments Refused By Federal Judge

DENVER, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A plea of guilty to income tax evasion Monday climaxed H. M. Blackmer's long trail back from 25 years of self-imposed exile. He is liable to a maximum penalty of four years' imprisonment and fines totaling $40,000.

The multi-millionaire oil man fled to France in the 1920s when he was sought as a witness in the Teapot Dome oil scandals but returned voluntarily last week to face longstanding criminal charges.

He stood, white-haired and slightly stooped, before Circuit Judge Orie L. Phillips to enter the plea which he thought would clear up his difficulties with the courts of the United States.

A few moments earlier, District Attorney Max M. Bulkeley had informed the court that when Blackmer pleaded guilty in the tax evasion case, the government would move for dismissal of four perjury indictments against him.

An Obvious Surprise

But Judge Phillips, to the obvious surprise of both sides, refused to accept that arrangement at face value.

"For what reason," he asked, "does the government propose to dismiss these so-called perjury cases?"

Bulkeley replied that the U. S. attorney-general's office believed the evidence was insufficient to support the perjury charges. As early as 1933, he said, the government had indicated a willingness to drop the perjury cases if Blackmer would come back to answer the evasion charges.

Judge Phillips instructed Bulkeley to turn over his files and "all facts in the government's possession." He said he would "satisfy my own judgment and conscience" before dismissing the indictments. Bulkeley told newsmen later he was "surprised. I didn't expect Judge Phillips to do that." Blackmer's son, Myron, a Denver broker, said the old man was "disappointed. He hoped this would end it."

None of the indictments against the 80-year-old Blackmer were concerned with the Teapot Dome scandal, which shook the Harding administration.

Evaded $1,137,514 Payment

Blackmer was accused of evading payment of $1,137,514 in income taxes from 1920 to 1923. He has paid the government $3,670,784 in back taxes and penalties.

Blackmer left the country in 1924 to avoid testifying in the Teapot Dome congressional investigation. The indictments were returned by a federal grand jury in Denver four years later.

Blackmer helped organize the Continental Trading Company. Profits of the company were converted into United States bonds, some of which were traced to Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior.

Fall was sentenced to prison for alleged acceptance of a $200,000 bribe for the sale of government naval oil reserves to private in-

A Souvenir Pen For Cordell Hull

President Truman hands the pen he used to Cordell Hull (right), former secretary of state, at the White House after the chief executive signed a bill extending the reciprocal trade agreements act and giving him a free hand to work at tariff-cutting treaties with other nations. After Blackmer entered his plea today, Judge Phillips set his bond at $5,000 and told him it would be all right for him to return to Boston, where he has been taking medical treatments in a clinic.

Judge Phillips said it would be "not less than 30 days" before he is ready to pass sentence on the evasion charge and make his decision on the perjury indictments.

Hearing Continues In Liner Noronic Fire

DETROIT, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Detroiters Monday gave at least 3 previously undisclosed pieces of testimony on the fire that swept the liner Noronic at Toronto on Sept. 17.

During a day-long hearing, Dr. Samuel R. Gerber, Cleveland coroner, took statements from 28 Detroiters. They were all survivors of the blaze that may have claimed a total of 122 lives.

The three pieces of testimony—not brought forth fully in last week's hearing in Cleveland—he said were:

1. That a stewardess was observed smoking near the C deck linen closet where the fire may have originated.
2. That no check was made of persons leaving or coming back on the ship.
3. That a group of youngsters apparently boarded the ship illegally at Toronto and were running about it freely, begging cigarettes from passengers.

Wealthy Housewife In St. Louis Is Robbed

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A wealthy housewife of suburban LaDue was bound, gagged and robbed of jewelry valued at $20,000 Monday by a gunman who posed as a delivery boy.

Mrs. John C. Heman, 45, told police she was alone in her home when the intruder knocked at the front door. He carried a long box and told her he was delivering flowers for her 17-year-old daughter.

Two Are Killed In Light Plane Crash

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A light plane crashed Monday near north St. Louis airport, killing the two occupants.

Dead were Clarence B. Martin, Jr., 49, assistant sales manager of the St. Louis Malleable Casting company, and Miss Loretta Echeimyer, 20, a secretary for the firm.

Eyewitnesses said the engine sputtered and died as the plane glided toward Ross Airport (7700 North Broadway).

The plane passed under some electric wires and struck a railroad switching track.

Martin was owner of the plane. He had been a pilot about three years. The plane did not burn.

Arms Pay Bill Passed By Senate

Ranges From $5 For Recruits To $300 For Some Generals

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Senate Monday passed a bill to give most members of the armed forces an Oct. 1 pay boost totalling more than $300,000,000 a year. It embodies the first general revision of salary scales in 40 years.

Action was by voice vote. The bill now goes to a conference with the House, which earlier approved a bill carrying identical raises for all except a few top grades.

A Senate Version

The Senate version would boost scales in widely varying amounts ranging from $5 a month for recruits with five months' service to $300 or more a month for generals with over 30 years' service.

The increases are generally higher for officers than for enlisted men. Congressmen have explained there has been no general pay raise in the top ranks for 40 years, while enlisted men have had increases.

Senate approval of the measure came a few hours after President Truman urged that it also approve salary hikes for cabinet officials and other top government administrators.

Mr. Truman said it was a matter of "great personal concern" to him that legislation which would hike these salaries, which he said are now "ridiculously low."

Cut Cabinet Raise

An informal committee of senators met, meanwhile, to revise this bill to limit the top increases to 50 per cent. This would hold cabinet salaries to $22,500 a year, rather than the $25,000 now called for in the bill. Their salaries

'S' Club Banquet Thursday Night

The Smith-Cotton high school "S" club composed of former students of the high school who "lettered" is some activity of the school, will hold the annual fall banquet on Thursday night, September 29. The banquet is to be held at 6:30 o'clock at the Epworth M. E. church, Broadway and Engineer with President Mike Giokaris, presiding.

Members of the "S" club have been busy mailing out letters of notification with tickets for reservations, but due to an incomare now $15,000.

Senator Bridges (R-NH) advocated also a $2,500 increase in congressional expense accounts. House and Senate members now receive $12,500 a year salary and tax-free expenses of $2,500. Although Bridges came out for an increase in the latter figure, he said later he doubts that the group will recommend it. If it does not, he said, he will drop the idea.

Bridges withdrew an amendment he had proposed be tacked onto the military pay bill. It would have directed the military establishment to absorb the cost for the current year by saving on other items for which Congress has already provided funds.

He said he will seek to achieve the same end in appropriations bills.

plete mailing list some "S" club members will not receive this letter. It has been requested by the committee in charge for those who have not received their letters to call the principal's office at the high school, make reservation and give their address. President Giokaris is anxious

Sedalia Masons At Grand Lodge

Several Sedalia Masons left for St. Louis this morning, to attend the Grand Lodge of Missouri, to be held on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, September 27, 28, 29.

The Grand Lodge meets in the Scottish Rite Cathedral at 3637 Lindell boulevard.

Among those attending are H. E. Richardson, W. M., of Granite Lodge No. 272; J. R. Smetana, secretary of Granite Lodge No. 272; Lloyd Kirkpatrick, W. M., Sedalia Lodge, No. 236; Ralph F. Boies, secretary of Sedalia Lodge, No. 236, AF&AM.

Jolly P. Hurtt, Past High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons, left for St. Louis on Sunday, September 25.

H. W. Stark, D.D.G.L. of the 36th District of Missouri and Lon V. Morris, S. W., Granite Lodge, No. 272, went to St. Louis on Monday to attend the banquet given for the district deputy grand master and lecturers that evening.

They will then attend the Grand Lodge sessions.

Harry S. Truman, M. W. Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Missouri, will fly to St. Louis on Wednesday, and will personally install the newly elected Grand Lodge officers for the ensuing year.

Throng at Cook Store Opening

"This has been one of the most friendly and helpful towns in which I ever installed a store," John C. Creators, manager of Kansas City factory branches, said in reference to the grand opening, Monday, of Cook Paint and Varnish company 418 South Ohio avenue.

He related that he was most appreciative of all the cooperation received from business interests here.

Mr. Creators estimated a crowd of 4,000 people, came through the store Monday between 8 a. m. and 5:30 p. m. Balloons were handed out to the children, and baking casseroles and salad bowls were given to the adults. Mr. Creators said, "the number of people attending opening day far surpassed our expectations or experience at any other store, and we were very embarrassed to run out of free gift items, but we will have an adequate stock in this afternoon to take care of the balance of the week."

Monday and today, the store has received many bouquets of American Beauty roses, gladioli, asters, "mums" and other flowers, which were sent by the Sedalia merchants. A big balloon, 10-feet in diameter, made of regular balloon cloth and filled with helium non-explosive gas is flying on a guide line 200 feet over the store.

Myron Lindquist, formerly of Mexico, Mo., is the manager of the store. Mr. and Mrs. Lindquist and son, Barry will reside at 1017 East Seventh street after October 1.

Suspect in Plane Blast Sane

QUEBEC, Que., Sept. 27—(AP)—A Quebec jeweler, accused of blowing up a plane with a time bomb to murder his wife and collect $10,000 insurance, is sane, according to police.

They said the jeweler, J. Albert Guay, was found sane yesterday by Dr. Gustave Desrochers, Quebec psychiatrist, and other experts, after a mental examination.

Police said Guay, held on a murder charge, had two motives in killing his wife—to collect the insurance on her life and get rid of her because he loved another woman.

Authorities charge Guay arranged to have a home-made bomb placed aboard a Canadian Pacific Airlines transport in which his wife was riding. The plane blew up Sept. 9 en route from Quebec to Baif Comeau, killing Mrs. Guay and 22 other persons, including three executives of the Kennecott Copper Corp.

Mrs. Arthur Pitre has admitted, authorities said, that she placed the bomb aboard the plane, but contended she did not know what the package contained. No charge has been placed against her.

Suit For Separate Maintenance Filed

A suit for separate maintenance was filed in circuit court this morning by Agnes White against Norbert V. White.

According to the petition, the couple was married on May 11, 1935 and separated, July 15, 1949. Plaintiff alleges in petition that defendant has failed and refused to support plaintiff and three minor children.

She is asking for the care and custody of three minor children and support and maintenance for herself and minor children.

John C. McCloskey is the attorney for the plaintiff.

A separate maintenance suit filed June 17, 1949 by Oma Stephenson against John Roy Stephenson was disposed of in circuit court, Monday when the plaintiff was awarded the sum of $50 a month for her support.

Attorney for the plaintiff was Fed F. Wesner and G. W. Anson was attorney for defendant.

Bequeathed $10,000 by Former Employer

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27—(AP)—Kathryn Winking, a secretary, has been left $10,000 for "long and faithful service" to her former employer, William L. Bohnekamp, who died last month.

Bohnekamp, 76, was a lawyer. His will, leaving the bulk of his estate to his widow, was filed in probate court yesterday.

Executives of Scouts to Meet

The Lake of the Ozarks council, Boy Scouts of America, will hold its monthly executive board meeting at 6 o'clock this evening, in the Pioneer Room of Dan's restaurant, 121 South Ohio avenue.

Presiding will be Charles M. Buckner, of Marshall, president of the council. In Sedalia also for the meeting is Reinhold G. Miller, of Jefferson City, Scout executive of the Lake of the Ozarks council.

Eleven counties are included in the council. Those in attendance for the dinner meeting include executive board members from Sedalia, Eldon, Marshall, Jefferson City and other communities.

Officers in the Pettis district who will attend the dinner as official representatives are: Rev. A. J. Brunswick, president of the Pettis district; Ben P. Robinson, vice chairman Pettis district and vice president of the Council; Cline Cain, district chairman of advancement and member at large to the executive board; Abe Silberman, district member at large; J. Fred King, district member at large; Roland Luster, chairman of organization and extension; Julius Stohr, camping and activities chairman; Harry Naugel, district finance chairman; Mike Wolfel, chairman of health and safety; and Pat Darnell, Scout commissioner.

Desire Judge Minton Appear

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—The Senate Judiciary committee voted 5 to 4 today to ask Judge Sherman Minton to come before the group for private questioning on his nomination to the Supreme Court.

Acting Chairman Kilgore (D-W.Va.) told reporters that Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) moved to request the appearance of Minton. The motion was seconded by another Republican, Senator Donnell of Missouri.

President Truman nominated Minton to succeed the late Justice Wiley Rutledge on the nation's highest tribunal.

Minton, 59, is a judge of the Seventh Circuit Court of Appeals, Chicago. In 1937, as a senator from Indiana, he was an active fighter for the late President Roosevelt's unsuccessful proposal to add an additional justice to the Supreme Court for each justice over age 70 who did not retire.

Foes of the plan called it an attempt to "back" a court which had ruled against much administrative legislation.

Ferguson told a reporter he wants to learn Minton's present views on President Roosevelt's 1937 proposal.

Heavy Voting on Liquor Issue

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 27—(AP)—Permeat weather reports of large voter turnouts in scattered precincts throughout Oklahoma touched off the special election vote today on prohibition repeal.

Pre-election forecasts estimated the vote at between 400,000 and 550,000. The last general election vote was 721,000.

Oklahoma's 42-year old constitutional provision against hard liquors was adopted when statehood was granted in 1907.

Fined For Careless Driving

Charles Lemmon, Sedalia, appeared in police court this morning and pleaded not guilty to a charge of careless and reckless driving. After hearing the evidence presented Judge Harry O. Berry fined Lemmon $25.

Nine overtime parking bonds of a dollar each were forfeited.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Ellis, of 1104 South Kentucky avenue, spent the week-end with their daughter, Mrs. Edith Hand and daughter Beverly of Kansas City.

Mrs. Earl Bailey of Kansas City is house guest of Mrs. J. B. Scruggs of 301 East Fifth street and is also visiting other friends while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Harris, of New York City, are here for a visit with Mr. Harris' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Harris, 1002 East Sixth street.

Mrs. George Morrison, 237 South Montau avenue, has as her guests, her sister, Mrs. Will Keith, of Malvern, Ark., and her niece, Mrs. John Freeman, of Hot Springs, Ark.

Priority to Tax Revision

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—A general revision of federal tax laws was assigned top priority today for congressional action in 1950. It may produce some new taxes in a drive to balance the nation's budget.

Whether the new tax law will bear any resemblance to President Truman's now-abandoned 1949 proposal for a $4,000,000,000 increase—no one now can say. As a general rule, Congress is not disposed to raise taxes in an election year—which 1950 would be.

Shatter 'Peace Assembly' Hopes

LAKE SUCCESS, Sept. 27—(AP)—Nationalist China filed a formal complaint in the United Nations Assembly today charging Russia with aiding Chinese Communists in their war to knock out the Canton government.

This wrecked hopes for what Assembly President Carlos P. Romulo and other delegates had set out to turn into a "peace assembly."

About 1,400 Tickets Sold For Ball

According to Sgt. Frank Gamber, in charge of ticket sales, approximately 1,400 tickets have been sold for the 13th annual Policemen's Ball to be held this Friday night, starting at 9:00 o'clock at the Convention Hall, Liberty Park.

Gamber said every Sedalia policeman has been selling tickets to their friends and strangers on the streets, and tickets have been selling exceptionally well this year.

Last year a large crowd attended the dance, and the way ticket sales have been going, Gamber said he expected a larger crowd this year.

Lee Brandt and his seven piece orchestra will furnish the music.

Is Granted a Stay of Execution, Bond

William Boner, Sedalia, appeared in Magistrate court this afternoon on a charge of petit larceny and was sentenced to 60 days in the Pettis county jail; however, he was given a stay of execution upon posting a bond.

The bond was signed by Orville Ragland and was posted to make certain Boner will refund $21, the value of red top clover seed which was the personal property of Leon Archias.

Recovering From Burns

Mrs. Oliver Thomas of 1512 East Fifth street, who received second degree burns on her face Saturday night, is improving satisfactorily.

Mrs. Thomas received the burns when trying to make a double boiler of two pans, not leaving room for the steam to escape, and causing an explosion, the steam all striking her in the face.

Russia Would Return Ships

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—Russia agreed formally today to return 30 American naval vessels loaned to the Soviets in World War II.

The ships are to be given back by December 1. They included three ice-breakers and 27 frigates which are small patrol craft.

The United States has been trying to get them back for four years.

Soviet Ambassador Alexander S. Panyushkin and Willard Thorp, assistant secretary of state, signed an agreement at the State Department today after negotiations which started early last month.

Death, Births And Marriage in Sequence

In the realm of vital statistics the Cartwright family, one of the pioneer ones in Pettis county, figured unusually.

Joseph L. Cartwright passed away and his funeral was held Tuesday, September 20, it being the first death in the family in a period of 87 years.

On Friday, September 23, a great-grandchild on his side of the family was born in Kansas City and on the same date on the mother's side a grandson was born just a few minutes previous, or after.

On the following day Saturday, September 24, J. B. Cartwright, of Perryton, Texas, a brother of J. L. Cartwright, and Mrs. Stella Shackelford Arding, of Nelson, Mo., were married.

Truman Back Stage Sees Miss Churchill

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—President Truman went backstage last night to pay a call on Winston Churchill's daughter.

Mr. Truman made the visit during an intermission of the play "The Philadelphia Story" in which Sarah Churchill, daughter of the former British prime minister, starred.

"How is your father?" the president asked as he shook hands with the actress.

Miss Churchill said her famous dad was feeling fine and added "Thank you for coming."

The president and Mrs. Truman drove 26 miles to see the play at the Olney theater in Maryland.

OBITUARIES

James M. Waterfield, James Moore-Waterfield, of New Franklin, formerly of Sedalia, died in the St. Joseph hospital in Boonville Monday night at 10:30 o'clock. Mr. Waterfield was a retired railroad fireman.

Those surviving are his wife, and the following children: Mrs. Vincent Siegel, Mrs. Hershal Summers, Miss Betty Jean Waterfield, James A. Waterfield and Samuel E. Waterfield of Sedalia; Eugene Waterfield of Columbia, Donald Waterfield, who is in the United States Army, and Mrs. William Dority of near Fayette.

Funeral services will be held in New Franklin at the Christian church. However complete arrangements have not been made.

G. R. Ballew

G. R. Ballew, 78, died at 3:00 o'clock Monday morning at his farm home northwest of Knob Noster.

Mr. Ballew was born May 28, 1871 in Benton county, Ark., the son of Robert E. and Alice Berry Ballew. On May 27, 1884 he married Mary Elsie Means of Lincoln, Mo.

Besides his wife, he is survived by five sons, Guy Ballew of LaMonte, Earl Ballew of Leeton, Murl Ballew of Lincoln and Wayne Ballew of Clinton; two daughters, Mrs. Betty Pittman of Sedalia and Mrs. Mary Moore of Clinton; two sisters, Mrs. W. M. Hanks of Knob Noster and Mrs. Elzie Tyler of Ellensburg, Wash., and ten grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by two sisters, Mrs. John Cooper of Jonesboro, Ark. and Mrs. Walter Reed of Lunsford, Ark., and a brother L. B. Ballew. Another sister died in infancy.

Mr. Ballew was a member of the Green Ridge Baptist church, later transferring his membership to the First Baptist church in Warrensburg.

Funeral services were held at 1:00 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the Sweeney-Phillips chapel in Warrensburg, conducted by the Rev. C. E. Hawn.

Burial was made at Butler.

Reece Hastain

Word has been received in Sedalia of the death of Reece Hastain who died in Brownsville, Texas recently of heart attack.

Mr. Hastain had spent his early childhood in Sedalia and his father, P. D. "Bud" Hastain, was at one time mayor of Sedalia and a practicing attorney. He attended the old Prospect school here.

George M. Presley

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Atwood were called to St. Louis September 23 when Mrs. Atwood's brother, Geo. M. Presley, died there of a heart attack.

Mr. Presley had lived in Sedalia the past 15 years. Two years ago he went to Winfield, then to Baden Station with his son. He served in the first world war and was wounded in the Argonne forest in the St. Mihiel drive.

Those surviving are: One son, Marion W. Presley; two grandchildren, Jennie and Linda Presley; three sisters, Rose Meguire of Batchtown, Ill.; Sarah Smith of Winfield; Clara Atwood of Sedalia; several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, two sisters and three brothers.

Funeral services were conducted by the American Legion Post of Batchtown, Ill., at the First Methodist church.

Burial was in the Wilson cemetery at Batchtown, Ill.

Ten Chickens in Flock Missing

Mrs. F. C. Lietzke, 1805 West Eighteenth street, didn't gather the usual amount of eggs Sunday from her flock of laying chickens, so she started counting heads.

Out of a flock of 75, she only counted 65, so she reported to police 10 White Rock chickens, averaging four pounds apiece were missing.

She said she didn't have the least idea who took the hens, and related it was the first time anything was ever missing out there. Since there is over an acre of ground, Mrs. Lietzke has been letting her chickens run loose during the day, and then roost in the hen house at night.

The owner is under the impression they were taken from the hen house sometime Saturday night, while Mr. and Mrs. Lietzke were out of town.

Research has disclosed that apples on a tree planted in nitrogen-enriched soil will grow larger, but will lost much of their pretty color.

Within a short time, the new 26-inch pipeline extending 400 miles across Kansas from the Kansas-Hugoton gas field to the Kansas City area, will be in service.

When completion-day comes the vast reserves of natural gas which underlie a large portion of the old Kansas dust bowl will be joined to the Cities Service 5,000-mile gas pipeline network.

This huge construction project has progressed steadily for two years... in the face of postwar shortages of steel for pipeline, transportation difficulties and other obstacles.

We join with your gas distributing company in looking forward to the day when this important new facility will be available to help meet the needs of natural gas users.

Build German Rockets For The Russians

Capable Of Hitting A Target 5,000 Miles Off With Accuracy

BERLIN, Sept. 27—(AP)—German scientists are producing for Russia trans-ocean rockets they designed for Hitler just before the war ended, Soviet zone informants claimed.

The informants, who have access to offices of the Soviet-backed East German police, said the mammoth underground munitions plant at Peenemuende on the Baltic coast, is turning out rockets at full speed.

Known Of "Certain Activity"

Allied intelligence officers said they know of "certain activity" at Peenemuende but declined to elaborate. One of them explained: "If Russia is making munitions in Germany it's a high level matter and not for discussion here."

At the end of the war the victorious allies agreed that Germany's war potential should be destroyed.

The rocket blossoms into eight to ten separate aerial bombs when it arrives over the target, scattering destruction over a three square mile area, informants said. It's range and accuracy are enough, the report said, to hit a target 5,000 miles away.

Earlier today both Allied and German sources confirmed that Russia had installed a chain of rocket launching platforms in eastern Europe, stretching all the way from the Baltic to the Black sea.

U. S. Testing Rockets

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26—(AP)—If the United States has anything to match a 5,000-mile rocket which Russia is reported to be producing, officials haven't been bragging about it.

They've talked about the eventual possibility of it, however. Intensified research has been under way since the war. All three armed services are busy on rocket experiments.

Stretching out across the Caribbean, from a spot in Florida, a 3,000 mile rocket testing ground has been authorized. Early this year officials were mentioning the probable need of a longer one some day. It could be extended to 5,000 miles.

Air Force officers lifted a corner of the curtain on the top secret rocket development work when they went to Congress last spring to get the money for the testing ground.

General Muir S. Fairchild disclosed that "missiles with ranges up to 500 miles will be ready for testing during 1949."

Some May, Some Must Items In Fall Planting List

For the First Six Weeks of Spring, Bulbs Supply Garden Color.

There are two kinds of fall planting—one which must be done now, or not at all and an optional kind, which may be done this fall or next spring.

Among the "musts" are the spring flowering bulbs, peonies, iris, madonna lilies, the seeds of some perennial flowers and that of the annual jacksnipe.

"May's" include evergreen and deciduous trees and shrubs, roses, the seeds of most perennial and quite a few annual flowers and vegetables, and lawn seed.

Obviously, not less than half of all planting to be done on home grounds can be done in the fall and garden owners who like to do things the easy way will spread their planting over two seasons, instead of waiting to crowd it all into a hectic spring.

The fact that only one-third of all gardeners do this, is no compliment to the intelligence of the clan; but indicates that they are controlled by emotion more than reason. In the fall there is no "spring fever," rather there may be lassitude. Like the plants themselves, the gardeners may long for a winter of dormancy, before undertaking a new season of growth.

regulating body said they hoped the hearings could be concluded before Nov. 1.

Mexican Airliner In Crash Near Volcano

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 27—(AP)—The commander of the airport said a Mexican commercial airliner "has suffered an accident" at the foot of Popocatepetl volcano.

He said nothing was known of the fate of the 21 persons aboard. The plane was returning on a local flight from Tapachula on the border with Guatemala.

Pedro Souza, airport commander, said the plane belonged to the Compania Mexicana De Aviacion. Senator Gabriel Ramos Millan, chairman of the national corn commission, was reported a passenger aboard the plane. Another believed aboard was Francisco Mayo, one of Mexico's leading news photographers.

Nursing Service Program To Start

COLUMBIA, Mo., Sept. 27—(AP)—A program to increase nursing service for the rural areas of the state will be initiated about January 1 by the University of Missouri.

Dean Trawick Stubbs of the school of medicine said the plan calls for the training of practical nurses during a 12 months course. He said plans call for enrolling a new class of 20 students every six months, the number to be increased as facilities permit.

Miss Virginia Harrison, director of nursing education, will direct the program.

"Graduates from this course will be able to perform many non-professional duties for which the untrained person may not be held responsible," Miss Harrison said. "They will be able to give bedside nursing care, under supervision, to non-acutely ill, convalescent and chronic patients. They will also be able to assist registered nurses with the more intricate duties involved in the care of the acutely ill."

The courses will be open to students from 18 to 45 years of age.

Symington Will Not Be Senatorial Candidate

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27—(AP)—Air Force Secretary Symington doesn't plan to toss his hat into Missouri's Senate race in 1950.

Rumors have been current lately that Symington, who comes from St. Louis, was thinking of campaigning next year for the seat now held by Senator Forrest C. Donnell (R-Mo.) whose term ends January 3, 1951.

Asked if the rumors were true, Symington sent word out from his office that "he does not plan to run for the Senate in 1950."

A.T. & T. Rate Hearing Recess Until October

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Sept. 27—(AP)—Harold R. Rickett, New York defended Monday his earlier testimony that Western Electric company produces equipment for A. T. & T. subsidiaries at lower prices than competitors.

Rickett is an accountant for Western Electric which, like Southwestern Bell, is owned by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company.

Southwestern Bell is seeking a second round rate increase of $5,900,000 a year on its Missouri operations. As the hearing resumed before Missouri's Public Service Commission cross examination of Bell witnesses continued throughout the day.

At the end of this week the hearing is expected to be recessed until next month. Commissioners of Missouri's Public Utility

New Lilies and New Ways To Plant Them This Fall

Japanese lily bulbs will be back in full supply this fall, and with them new American varieties, so that lily fanciers may choose from a list larger than ever before available, to plant for next summer's flowers.

Fall planting is best, because most lily bulbs available in the spring were dug the previous fall, and spent the winter in cold storage. It is much better for them to be in the soil of your garden, where they can start spring growth as soon as the frost has left.

Plant breeders in this country have been working on lilies, and offer several hybrid types, which are claimed to be more adaptable to garden environment than older varieties, which are species, or wild forms, gathered in their native homes, and transferred to gardens without change. Those which have survived and can be grown with reasonable care in average garden soil include:

L. candidum, the Madonna lily, formerly grown by florists as the Easter lily; L. regale, the royal lily, white with pink markings; L. speciosum, a Japanese variety of which two varieties are common, rubrum, white marked with rose, and album, all white; L. henryi, known as the yellow speciosum; L. tigrinum, var. splendens, the tiger lily; L. tenuifolium, the coral lily of Siberia; L. auratum, the Japanese gold-banded lily; L. elegans, showy Japanese lily, including red and yellow; L. testaceum, fragrant buff-colored flowers growing 3 feet high; L. martagon, purple flowers spotted with black.

American growers question the wisdom of planting lily bulbs deeply. Lillium candidum and its hybrids should barely be covered with soil, they say. Others are best planted so that the soil above the bulb is no deeper than the bulb itself. Thus a bulb measuring four inches from top to bottom should have four inches of soil above it. If this is not deep enough, the roots will pull the bulb deeper; while a bulb planted so deep can never rise to the right level.

More important than depth is the location, however. Lilies need a porous, well drained soil, sunshine and lots of moisture. A southern slope is ideal. Plant the bulbs upright, otherwise the stem may be weak.

Japanese Auratum Lily

American growers also are in agreement that the old idea that lilies should not be fed with commercial plant food is obsolete. They respond well to modern commercial preparations, and show no injury, provided it is used with the usual precautions. In preparing a bed or border for lilies, spade under a complete balanced plant food, using 4 pounds for 100 square feet. In planting bulbs singly, mix a teaspoonful of plant food with soil at the bottom of the hole, and cover it with an inch of fresh soil before setting the bulb.

attended the dedication of the Christian Day School at Stover Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schumacher and son of Waverly spent the week-end with Cole Camp relatives.

Brawny Men Of Boston Take Over

Break Exact Tie With Yanks 7-6 To Lead League

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP)—The brawny men of Boston got even with Joe Page yesterday as they stormed into the American league lead with a 7-6 triumph over the N. Y. Yankees on a 4-run blast against Fireman Joe in the eighth inning.

Breaking an exact first place tie with the Yanks, the Sox exploded two big innings for their tenth straight victory of a late September surge. It was the first time this season the Yanks had been out of the lead.

How They Stand

With five games to go, this is how it looks:

	W	L	G.B.	T.P.
Boston	44	55	—	5
New York	43	56	1	5

And so the Yanks, who led Boston by 12 games the night of July 4 and had an imposing five game bulge on the losing side some 10 days ago, finally have been colared.

From now on they play at home, three with Philadelphia and a final pair with Boston Saturday and Sunday. The Sox close it out on the road, three at Washington, starting tomorrow night, and the final two at the Yankee stadium.

The mighty Sox with the leading batsmen, home run hitter and runs batted in ace in their lineup, had to resort to the squeeze play to eke out this all-important win. Bobby Doerr's squeeze bunt to first baseman Tommy Henrich moved Johnny Pesky home with the tie-breaking run against Page. Most of the big throng of 66,156 roared with catcher Ralph Houk in a strenuous beef at plate umpire Bill Grieve on the play at the plate. It was close but the ump ruled the sliding Pesky safe.

Almost everything that could happen did happen during the nerve-wrecking, three hour and 18 minute thriller as the Yanks recovered from a three-run Boston first inning to move out front with four in the fourth.

Crumble In Big Eighth

Adding to their advantage in the sixth and seventh, they crumbled in the big eighth as Page lost his fourth straight ball game. It was Joe's third failure within a week.

For a time it looked as though Lefty Page, the capable reliever, was enroute to another of his sparkling performances. Coming in to replace Fred Sanford in the fifth he sailed through the sixth and seventh without trouble. The end came suddenly and he wasn't all to blame.

A line drive single by Dom DiMaggio that Phil Rizzuto wasn't able to hold following a single by Birdie Tebbetts and a walk to pinch-hitter Lou Stringer, was the telling blow.

Only one run scored on DiMaggio's hit but it might have been a double or even a triple play. That was how close it was to an out.

Pesky rolled the ball toward George Starnweiss but the second baseman's error let Stringer score. Now it was 6-5. The "Williams shift" backfired when Teddy groundout to Starnweiss in back of first base but Henrich, diving for the drive, was unable to field his position. It had to go as a single, loading the bases with none out. Vern Stephens' fly to Gene Woodling brought home DiMaggio to tie the score. Then came Doerr's squeeze play.

Kindred Protects Margin Ellis Kinder, Joe McCarthy's 23-game winner with a 13-game win string, came on to protect the slim margin.

Stengel's starter, Tommy Byrne, left before retiring a man in the first inning in which nine Red Sox batted during a 31-minute stretch. Walks to DiMaggio and Williams, sandwiched around Pesky's "fluke" single set the stage for Stephens' two-run single. Stengel yanked Byrne and brought on Fred Sanford who passed Zarilla and then walked Tebbetts with the bases loaded forcing in the third run.

A walk to Bauer in the sixth, followed by Starnweiss' hit-and-run single as he threw his bat at the ball, and Woodling's fly ball gave New York another score. They picked up their last in the seventh on Bobby Brown's ground rules double that bounced into the stands in right field and Houk's run scoring single.

Tebbetts could have been the "goat" if the Sox lost, for he was thrown out "stealing" second in the fourth.

When the A's come in to open a 3-day stand starting today, Stengel plans to start Vic Raschi, winner of 19 and loser of 10. He will be opposed by Dick Fowler (14-10). After that Manager Connie Mack is expected to throw Joe Coleman (13-14) and Carl Scheib (9-12).

Joe Dobson will work for the Red Sox at Washington tonight.

Redbirds Have Another Advantage

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Here is an interesting pover by Leo Ward, traveling secretary of the St. Louis Cardinals:

"Who would win the National league pennant should the Dodgers win all their remaining four games while all the Cards' remaining five games were called by rain?" he said.

Ward answered his own query. "The Cards," was his surprising answer.

A check proved he was correct, even though the Brooks actually would be half a game ahead ahead, the Cards would lead in percentages .638 to .636. And the percentage, not the games, is the final factor.

Here's how the pennant race would end:

Brooklyn	98	56	.636

Umpire Troubles For Yank Players

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Umpire Bill Grieve will file a report with American League President Will Harridge because of a remark made to the official by New York outfielder Cliff Mages during yesterday's Yankee 7-6 loss to Boston.

"How much did you have bet on the game?" Mages said to Grieve in a runway after the game. Grieve said Mages made the same remark from the bench during the game.

"I'm including that in my report to Harridge," said Grieve, "I'm explaining about Mages and also how I was pushed by Houk (Yank catcher) and the manager (Casey Stengel). I left Houk in because he was the only catcher they had. Ordinarily both would have been out of there."

Grieve called Johnny Pesky, Red Sox third baseman, safe at home in a controversial squeeze play in the eighth inning. Pesky represented the winning run.

"The runner slid under Houk and that's all there was to it," said Grieve, "sure, I could have made the easy call, giving it to the home club; but in my heart, I know I made the right call."

Sooners Make An Impressive Start

OKLAHOMA CITY, Sept. 27.—(AP)—The University of Oklahoma's 46-0 pounding of Boston College's football team doesn't indicate the Sooners' strength, Coach Bud Wilkinson said.

"Boston college is better than the score shows, and Oklahoma isn't that good," Wilkinson told Monday quarterbacks.

Oklahoma, touted as one of the nation's top teams, made an impressive start at Boston last Saturday night. However, Wilkinson tempers the victory with the following explanation:

"I still think Boston college had a good team. They have a good offense and when their defense improves, they will be tough. "George Thomas' kickoff return for 95 yards threw Boston college off balance.

"Boston College has to play Wake Forest next Friday night, and I think when its coaches saw BC couldn't win, they pulled out the first team. After that second quarter, we were playing the second and third teams except for Ed Songin.

"We got a lot of points, but that doesn't mean we're that much better."

Wilkinson paid tribute to Soongie's fine passing and called him one of the nation's best. He hit 22 out of 46 passes.

K-State May Break 5-Year Winless Period

Team is in Peak Condition For Colorado Saturday

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Coach Ralph Graham believes Kansas State has a chance Saturday to end its five-year winless period against major football teams.

The K-State Wildcats, who last won a Big Seven conference game by beating the Kansas Jayhawks in 1944, will play Colorado at Manhattan, Kas., Saturday afternoon.

"Colorado will be hard to stop," Graham said. "I'm confident we can score if our defenses stand up, we might have a chance."

Encouraged by his team's 55-0 trouncing of Fort Hays (Kas.) State in its opener last week, Graham expects to have his sophomore-sparked Wildcats in a peak condition for Colorado.

Nobody got hurt against Fort Hays and regular tackle Bud Cole, who missed the opener because of an injury, is about ready to go again.

Buffaloes Beat Wildcats 51-7

Colorado, which will be favored by several touchdowns by virtue of its 13-12 victory over Kansas, got the word from Coach Dallas Ward yesterday that "Kansas State is loaded for us." Colorado won 51-7 last year.

An overflow crowd of more than 15,000 is expected for the game beginning at 2 p. m. (CST).

The Buffaloes may have lost the services of center Bill Simmons in the Kansas game of the remainder of the season. He suffered recurrence of a shoulder injury.

Another Important Game

Of equal importance to the league state will be meeting of Iowa State, which tied Illinois 20-20, and Kansas at Lawrence, Kansas.

Coach Abe Stuber of Iowa State yesterday said the offensive formation which twice pulled the Cyclones from behind to tie Illinois was nothing new.

"Call it a half-punt if you like," Stuber said, "but actually it's nothing but a modified short punt and we used it practically all season two years ago."

Stuber said the Cyclones mixed the short punt in with the T simply because some of the boys could do a pretty good job running it.

Kansas quarterbacks Dick Gilman and Jerry Bogue worked with the Kansas reserves in a long scrimmage against the freshmen.

No. 1 and 2 Teams

Mighty Oklahoma and Missouri regarded as the Big Seven's No. 1 and 2 teams, respectively, got busy for games with Southwest conference members Saturday, while Nebraska pointed for Minnesota.

Oklahoma plays Texas A. and M. at Norman, Okla., and Missouri meets Southern Methodist at Dallas.

• Sport Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP)—One day you're a hero, the next a bum in the baseball business.

And at this stage of the pennant races the bums seem to outnumber the heroes.

Sunday it was the Dodgers' Burt Shotton who was the target, almost making Brooklyn fans forget about Bill Stewart's annoying actions in St. Louis.

Yesterday Yankee followers had a tough time deciding whether to hang it on Tommy Henrich, Ralph Houk, Joe Page or some other Yankees or the whole thing on Umpire Bill Grieve.

It was Grieve who ruled Johnny Pesky safe on a squeeze play for Boston's winning run over the Bronx dud-Bombers.

But it was Houk who didn't block little Johnny off and Henrich who made the throw after a couple of other plays of doubtful brilliance.

Just after Snuffy Starnweiss had bobbled Pesky's grounder between first and second, Ted Williams hit into the same gap. Henrich made a futile dive for it, Starnweiss went behind him to get the ball and, since Page hadn't come over, there was no one to cover the bag.

Those actions, and the fact the Sox won, probably took the goat's horns right off Birdie Tebbetts. All Birdie did was try to take second on a third ball, thinking it was a fourth, and throw to second when it wasn't covered.

The Other Side

For the hero's role, we offer Al Zarilla, hitherto regarded as just a reformed St. Louis Brownie.

He pulled pitcher Maurice McDermott out of trouble in the second with a jumping catch of Johnny Lindell's drive just in front of the sands, and he made an even more sensational diving slab of Henrich's grandstand-bound slam in the ninth.

See what we mean? If that one had gone for a game-tying homer, Henrich would have been the hero again.

One-Minute Sports Page

Boston College won the national collegiate hockey championship, the New England golf title, the New England college ski title, a mid-winter sailing regatta and their district college baseball crown. They didn't have to play Oklahoma in those sports.

Gleanings Of Gridiron College Teams

By Will Grimsley

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP)—By beating Stanford and Army in its next two games, Michigan can tie the modern collegiate football record for winning streaks—26. Cornell wove such a skein in 1921-24. Army's great wartime team, featuring Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis, won 25 in a row in 1944-46.

The longest unbeaten string was achieved by California's Bears from 1920 through 1925—fifty victories and four ties without a setback.

Notre Dame now has gone 29 games without a defeat but has been tied.

Coaches Red Sanders and Ivy Williamson are off to good starts in their new surroundings.

Sanders has won his first two games with a UCLA team that was kicked around plenty last year.

Williamson's Wisconsin looked good in smashing Marquette Saturday, 41-0.

last year the Badgers won two of nine.

Booming Crowd

Opening day crowds indicate a boom rather than a sagging gate for the rah-rah sport.

There were 97,239 in Michigan's expanded stadium.

A crowd of 62,787 saw Southern Cal and Navy at Los Angeles.

Ohio State had the biggest opening day crowd in history—66,510—to watch the Buckeyes edge out Missouri, 33-34.

All-America backs lived up to their advance notices.

Northwestern's Art Murakowski dashed 30 yards for one of his team's scores in beating Purdue, 20-6.

North Carolina's Charlie (Choo Choo) Justice scored one touchdown and figured in two others as the Tar Heels trimmed N. C. State, 26-8.

But some other backs got the bigger headlines.

Like Emil Sitko of Notre Dame, who shifted from halfback to fullback and punched across three touchdowns in the Fighting Irish rout of Indiana.

Statistics on TCU Player, Lindy Berry

Lacks 106 Yards To Have Advanced Football 3 Miles

By Harold V. Ratliff FORT WORTH, Tex., Sept. 27.—(AP)—The rock of Texas Christian — durable Lindy Berry — will pass the three-mile mark in advancing a football this week. That is, if he follows the usual pattern.

Berry has only a nodding acquaintance with the bench and should get in about 50 minutes against Arkansas at Fayetteville Saturday in the opening South west conference game.

To date, Berry has run, passed and otherwise propelled a football 5,174 yards in a little more than three seasons. He actually needs only 106 yards against Arkansas to make it three miles.

Has Played 1125 Minutes Berry, who never has been hurt in football at T. C. U. and has played 1125 minutes of a possible 1980, had his greatest night last week against Oklahoma A. and M.

The Horned Frogs were 19 points behind when Lindy took charge. He passed and ran and smashed and when the game ended Texas Christian had tied the Aggies 33-33 and had the ball on the one-yard line.

Berry had 304 yards rushing and passing which lacked only seven yards of being as much as the entire Oklahoma A. and M. team made. And this didn't include a 78-yard punt return for a touchdown. He scored two touchdowns and passed for two more. He completed 22 of 33 passes.

Possibility For All-America

Berry, being boomed mightily far all-America, is playing his fourth varsity year. When he was a freshman, first year men were eligible at T. C. U.

Right now he has almost a third as many yards as he made all last season and he's played only two games. His total this season is 467 yards. He got 1489 last year rushing and passing.

And another thing, he has a passing average of .615. He has completed 32 out of 52 for 408 yards.

Berry was No. 1 in the nation in offensive plays last year with 324.
